Dear Ms. Kissinger

This is in response to your U.S General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2015-000455), dated February 25, 2015, in which you requested " the blanket purchase agreement referenced at <http://www.gsa.gov/portal/content/205159> and any documentation entered into by GSA to effectuate the Blanket Purchase agreement."

Enclosed please find the documents responsive to your request. In processing your request, we have withheld personally identifiable information, specifically actual signatures in accordance with the sixth statutory exemption under the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6), which permits an agency to withhold personal and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

You have the right to appeal this partial denial of records under FOIA. If you wish to appeal, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center
1800 F Street, Northwest, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405-0001

Your appeal must be in writing, reference the control number assigned, and contain a brief statement of the reasons why the requested information should be released. Enclose a copy of your original request, the response to your request, and why the denial of the records was in error. The submission is not complete without the required attachments. The appeal letter, the envelope, the email subject line, and the fax cover sheet should be clearly marked prominently "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

U.S General Services Administration
1800 F. Street, Northwest
Washington, DC 20405
Telephone: (202) 501-0800
Fax: (202) 501-2727

This completes our action on this request. If you choose not to appeal but have questions about the way GSA handled your request, please contact Justin Higginbotham at 202-708-3652 or by email at Justin.higginbotham@gsa.gov.

Sincerely,

Travis Lewis
